A COLLABORATIVE TRAINING SESSION

Sidekick and Real Mastery Consulting are excited to invite Property Management teams working in Australian Capital Territory (ACT), to a collaborative, interactive, and engaging training session, with a focus on a topic of passion for us, and of great necessity throughout the Property Management community.

WHY ATTEND THIS SESSION?

In 2022-23, homelessness services assisted 58,589 women and 37,825 children who had experienced domestic and family violence*. As Property Management professionals, we play a unique role in providing safe, supportive environments.

*Homelessness & Domestic & Family Violence Australia, STATE OF RESPONSE REPORT 2024

BUILD YOUR TOOLBOX

Learn how to recognise the signs of domestic and family violence in properties you manage, how to respond with appropriate care and refer effectively to support services.

SPEAKER: FELICITY VANCE

Founder of FV Consulting and an experienced educator, presenter and programs facilitator. Felicity has qualifications in Domestic and Family Violence Practice, Psychology, Business Management and Education and is experienced in the provision of family violence, mental health, healthy relationships, gender equality and psychoeducational services.

SUPPORT SKILLS & LEGALITIES

Learn the best ways to support both tenants and landlords if domestic violence is occurring, including legal rights.

SPEAKER: HERMIONE GARDINER

The founder of Sidekick spent many years managing properties and throughout her career, she was always looking for ways to streamline and simplify the process.

MANAGING DIFFICULT CONVERSATIONS

Learn how to manage difficult conversations and communicate effectively with tenants experiencing violence.

Since becoming a trainer and coach to the industry she saw the struggles other property managers faced and so Sidekick was created to house short courses, resources and tools that can help Property Managers grow and thrive.
