

NAVIGATE THE NEW RENTAL REFORMS

The Residential Tenancies Amendment Act NSW 2024 is now in effect, with dates to be advised on when the majority of changes will take place, but it is likely to be 1st July 2025.

As our valued client, we invite you to join our online training session to understand these amendments and their impact on the Property Management Sector.

Session Details - Online via Zoom

Session 1 : With Rosalie Douglas - Wednesday 26th March, 10am – 11am

Session 2 : With Trish Rogers - Tuesday 15th April, 2pm - 3pm

Investment : Complimentary for our clients, $295 for non-clients

Meet The Trainer - Rosalie Douglas

With a Real Estate career spanning 30 years, Rosalie is not just a managing director and trainer, but she has proven to be well sought-after, having published several real estate industry books including, “Tribunal Preparation Kit” and “Be Bullet Proof at Tribunals”.

Meet The Trainer - Trish Rogers

For 20 years, Trish has mastered real estate, offering insights to overcome challenges and to future proof-your business. With training spanning junior staff to senior management, Trish brings learnings for all.

Session Overview

- understanding what these changes mean for you, your landlords, tenants
- rent increases, renovations and keeping a pet
- sale of property with vacant possession and landlord / family moving back in
- the implications that these changes have on your processes and procedures
- have your questions answered

